

I feel the public is better served with less rather than more media consolidation so I oppose a vote that leads to more consolidation. On June 2 I urge you to retain the current ownership rules.